Intimations.

MHIS HAIR WASH has been prepared by us, for the last 20 years. Its sale A is steadily increasing in India, the Straits and Japan. It possesses all the qualities of a Hair Oil or Pomade without their stickiness. It induces a healthy action of the scalp and nourishes the Hair. Dandruff never appears whilst it is in use. It contains none but the best ingredients, and the greatest care is taken in the compounding. When the Hair falls off after fever or any other sickness, this Wash will surely prove of the greatest value.

From its great neurishing power on the follicles it may in time cause Hair to return to its natural color: it, however, does not contain a particle of any dyeing ingredient Using it constantly will most certainly prevent the Hair falling. It is cleanly in use the smallest quantity sufficing. It has n sediment, and therefore requires no shaking.

WE are informed by the Agents Messrs Gibb, Livingston & Co.) that the steamship Benledi, from London, left Singapore yesterday, the 17th instant, for this port.

WE hear that an Amateur Concert, in aid of a fund to provide a further supply of books for the library on board the Hospital ship Meance, will take place on Friday ovening, the 4th proximo. Particulars will be announced later.

REUTER's telegram which appears to-night. to the effect that a vessel called the Chidesdale had put in to St. Helens, severely damaged, has reference to the British ship Daylight .- Mitsu Bishi Mail leaves for of that name which left Hongkong on the 27th September last for London, Captain Hatfield, master. Particulars of the disaster are not yet to hand.

s we intimated last night, the case Regina v Page at Canton has been adjourned for a few days to await the decision of Chief Justice French on the points raised with regard to jurisdiction. The Judge said, on the application for this postponement being made from the Bar, that probably he would not have required so long an adjournment so far as he himself was concerned. The Counsel in the case return to Canton on Monday, when it will be known whether 4 p.m.—English Mail leaves for Ports of the case is to go further or not.

> Mr. Justice Snowden resumed his place upon the Supreme Court Bench to-day, after his protracted indisposition, and was effusively welcomed in open Court by the Chief Justice, who hoped he was fully recovered and well prepared for a spell of hard work. Both Judges sat to-day, in separate Courts in Criminal jurisdiction, and they will both sit again to-morrow, when a fair portion of the Calendar ought to be got through. There will be no Sessions on Monday, but Mr Snowden will sit for half a day in Summary Jurisdiction. The Sessions will probably be adjourned over the Races.

THE Singapore people are far ahead of the community of this Colony in promising to adopt the Telephone Exchange system at an early date. We read that already—the proposal has been on the tapis only a few weeks-no less than thirty subscribers have given their names, and the necessary apparatus for the Central offices, the Telephones, wire, etc., etc., have already been ordered from England. The instrument to be used is that known as the "Gower-Bell loud-speaking Telephone," which is a combination of the Microphone of Professor Hughes and the Telephone of Professor Bell, with an important improvement by Application for Shares of H.K. & W'poa Mr Gower of Paris. The voice, as transmitted by the instrument, is so loud and distinct that it can be heard without the slightest difficulty in the noisiest offices. For the monthly subscription of $10, which is about the same as that charged in Europe and America, the wires are put up and maintained, the apparatus fitted, and the whole kept in good working condition. Separated as our residences are here in Hongkong at long distances from our places of business, and these distances not of a nature that can be run over smartly, the telephone would be of incalculable value as a social power. As a means of communication between commercial men, who having but a few words to say, could by this invention say it each in his own office, the telephone would save an enormous amount of that wear and tear and worry and heat and bustle which so irritate and tire one out in a climate like this. Will no enterprising firm undertake for Hongkong what thas been done for Singapore? There can be little doubt the patronage would well

> THE Turkestan Gazette gives Peking corespondence received from Vernoe, which testifies to the disposition of the Peking authorities to arrange amicably with Russia by directing the removal for trial of the Governor of Tchuguchak for having ordered the execution of a Russian Khirghiz subject; also the supercession of another governor for insulting the members of the Russian exploring expedition. repay the trouble.

In a leading article on the subject of Chinese emigration to the United Sta a the Daily News says :- "The Chinese are made to contribute their full quota to the expenses of State and municipal government in which they are not permitted to have a voice; they are taxed heavily for public schools to which they must not send their children; and, to crown all, they are frequently made the objects of attack and plunder by rowdies. It is not long sines there was a similar outcry in America against cheap German labour and cheap Italian labour; but the emigrants of these two nationalities so promptly identified themselves with the political magnine as to make their power felt on election days and hence the cry died away. One megitable effect of Chinese labour has been to reduce the exorbitant and ridiculous rates of wages which ruled in the Pacific States a few years. ago, and thus to lower prices all round to the manifest advantage of consumers. There are some persons who think that the menual work of the Republic, and perhaps of other countries, will yet be done by Chinese labour. It must be admitted that they say not a desirable element in the life of great Six beetshort,-1, Leong Asang; 2, Woodin; towns : but their remarkable docility, their wonderful handiness, and the neutness with which they do domestic work that the European races leave to women-servants, will probably ensure their permanent establishment in the United States and in Australia.

Colonel Gordon, of Chinese fame, has been travelling in Ireland, and has published his observations. He gives an appalling account of the condition of the peasantry on the wild, windy, and wet western coast and makes the proposal that the Government should buy out several counties, at a cost of $400,000,000, for reasons similar to those which caused the purchase of negro freedom in the West Indies, and convert the whole into a crown estate. This is, course, extravagant and impracticable; but the eagerness with which even the most bourd plans for solving the Irish problem tre listened to by the English public shows that it has at last taken hold of the English mind, and that the solution is near at hand. - New York Nation.

HONGKONG HORTICULTURAL EXHIBITION SOCIETY.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW, -SECOND DAY. The main interest in to-day's continuance of the Society's Flower Show, centred the award of the two challenge was announced that two silver challenge cups would be given, one for the most creditable exhibition of plants and flowers, and one for vegetables and fruits, (presumably for the most creditable exhibition of vegetables and fruit) to be won two years in succession before becoming the property of the holders. Different modes were adopted by the Judges in the two departments in deciding what was the "most creditable exhibition." The fruit-andvegetable Judges held that the matter was one entirely within their discretion, and that if any rule was to be adhered to at all, that is, if their idea of the respective excellence of the various exhibitors' exhibits as a whole was not to be the final test, then the accumulated value of the money-prizes show, to allow of their being sufficiently earned by each was to rule the matter. This was manifestly unfair, because those who were simply competing for the cups had stated that they would not strive for any money prizes, had only been awarded merit (equal to a first prize) not, by arrangement, been placed for second or third. The Judges of the shew with a freshness still upon in the Flowers and Plants Department had a | them. much more sensible and logical rule which we were sorry to see their brother Judges refusing to accept. It is that which obtains in every Flower Show at home when a challenge cup or anything of the kind is being competed for, that first the number of first prizes be taken; the competitor who has the largest number of these tokens wins; firsts being equal, the tie is decided by seconds: another tie being made, it is decided by thirds; and if the firsts, the seconds, and the thirds are equal, then the question is decided by the Judges. are rather astonished that such a point should have arisen, because the quesone on which the practice at Home cannot be doubted for a moment. More especially is it astonishing in Hongkong where the catalogues or rather prizelists have over and over again contained the provision that the cup should be awarded to the competitor having the largest number of first prizes, in fact on precisely the grounds we have mentioned above as those which regulate the matter at home. As the decision goes Mr Dickie carries off both cups. that for the most creditable exhibition of plants and flowers, and the other for the most creditable collection of vegetables and fruit. It may be remembered by our readers and by those who take an interest in such matters that last year the Plants and Flowers Cup was carried off by Mr Ewo, and that for vegetables and fruits. was won by Mr Dickie. So that Mr Dickie, having already two challenge cups gained from this Society, bids fair do place another two on his sideboard, for few November 1880. The Attorney General, in opening the case, said that the prisoner was charged under ordinance No. 8 of .1875 for by fraudulent means enticing a woman away from the Colony for the purposes of prosti tution. The facts were very simple. The prisoner came to this woman who was living in Hongkong and asked her if she would like to go with him to receive employment at Kowloon. The woman thought he meant to provide her with some honest employment. This man way a friend her husband who was dead, and she trusted in him. Then after she had gone with him Beans (French).-1. > THE-JAPANESE STABBING CASE. Ona Maku was charged with wilfully wounding one Ma Kichi on the 7th January, with intent to do grievous bodily harm, and (2) with unlawfully wounding. Frisoner pleaded not guilty.

The Chief Justice reserved sentence.

A Jury was empanelled consisting Messrs F. H. Slaghek, A. A. dos Remedios, R. Fraser-Smith, E. E. Cotton, F. Lemke, R. Schonberg, and C. F. Grossmann. An interpreter was present from the Jaoanese Consulate.

The Attorney General said the prisoner was charged with malicious wounding. The ircumstances under which the attack was committed would be detailed by the evidence that would be laid before them. It was not necessary for him to go into the matter now. There had been a quarrel between the prisoner and the man who was assaulted and stabbed, and in the course of this quarrel the prisoner inflicted several wounds on this man. If the Jury believed the evidence of the man who was stocked. which was corroborated more or less by those who were present or who were about at the time, they would, if they found him guilty of an assault at all, find him guilty of malicious wounding. Evidence to much the same effect was then adduced as was heard before the Police Court when the case was committed. The evidence having been heard. Lordship summed up at some length, and the jury retired but failed to come to a unanimous decision, four out of sever being for finding the prisoner guilty on the second count, and three being for finding him not guilty on either count. One of the jury addressed his Lordship to the effect that three of their number could not conscientiously find-that any actual evidence had been shown against the prisoner. He asked his Lordship's particular attention to the last three words. By treaty Her Majesty has had ceded to her by the Emperor of China by the Tientsin Treaty of 1858, that al questions in regard to right, whother of property or person, of British subjects shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the British authorities; and, by section 16. "British subjects who may commit any crime in China shall be tried and punished by the Consul or other public functionary authorised thereto according to the laws of Great Britain." If this argument was good for anything, it 22nd inst. must go to this extent, in spite of what his learned friend had said about its not being passed beyond the limits of propriety and reason,—that any act, no matter how barbarous the murder or cruel and malignant the act, if that act should happen to have met with the approval of the Chinese Government, whose servant the prisoner was -the simple statement of that fact, the adpletely bar the jurisdiction of this Court or kong. any others. Unless the argument went this length, then in each particular case the Court must inquire into in detail the nature of the circumstances of the act, the nature of the report made to the Chinese Government, and the nature of the sanction or authority given. The plea is to the jurisdiction and jurisdiction alone, and had demurred to it solely in that charactor. It was not a plea in bar, and could not be dealt with as such. demurring to the plea he had not mitted the truth of the facts except for the purposes of this argument. If it had been put in as a plea in bar, he should have replied to it and traversed almost every allegation in it. He admitted for the purposes of this argument, that the facts may be true, and he said that if they were true they had to be inquired into by this Court, that is, this Court has the power. He simply said they were no bar to the jurisdiction of this Court. Had he replied to that plea traversing all the facts he would have pleaded according to the terms of the replication to the contrary, and have asked for a jury to be empanelled to try these questions. Supposing my learned friends were defeated and he proved his case, what would be his Lordship's judgment? Not that the prisoner should go tree, but that he-should answer to the indictment. That position of affairs was very clearly shown in the case of Musgrave and Pulido. He submitted, therefore, he had properly simply demurred to His Lordship, having prima facie complete jurisdiction over this charge, it lay on his learned friends to show conclusively that this Court has no jurisdiction. This they had not done. Their pleading was that the acts charged were the acts of the State, which it was beyond the power of any municipal court in the world to enquire into. > The Pall Mall Gazette says :- Perhaps the following plan, propounded with the utmost confidence by a surviving Jingo the other day in a railway carriage, may find favour with certain extreme friends of coercion :- "What Ireland wants is, not an Englishman, but a Chinese mandariu. One of these fellows was governor of a province in China in which a tax-collector was murdered. What did he do? Why, he sent a gunboat and shot down four hundred of the people. It would be worth a hundred thousand pounds to get him to govern > Ireland. We should not hear any more of the Irish difficulty for a century." The World states that Admiral Coote's share of the responsibility for the grounding of the Iron Duke is not to be inquired into. This is creating some dissatisfaction in China, and is also animadverted upon in naval circles at home. Perhaps some independent member of Parliament of the interrogative turn of mind would not object to putting a question on the subject to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

Vice-Admiral Willes, C.B., successor to Admiral Coote in the naval command in China, proceeded by the P. and O. steamer Gwaltor, which left Southampton on 12th inst., en route for Singapore, via Bombay. After discussion, it was unanimously resolved that this unusual claim made by the uwners of one Euglish steamer against the owners of another steamer of the same nationality, and which in England would probably have been settled by a payment of £100, should be resisted; and Mr Percy Lloyd, the representative of Messrs Matheson and Co., agents of the Canton and Triton Insurance Offices, was requested to obtain the assistance of a consignee of cargo by the Achilles to try a test case in an English court of law, the above Companies
